

THE RAMLEELA PROJECT

PRESS KIT · COLLINGWOOD, ONTARIO

Celebrating our roots. Passing them on.

A few families have come together with a heartfelt vision: to keep cultural traditions alive and bring the next generation closer to the timeless epic of Ramayan. The Ramleela Project brings friends, families and community volunteers together for a free performance in Collingwood, sharing the story of Lord Ram and its themes of courage, devotion, duty and homecoming.

Date	Saturday, November 7, 2026
Time	1:30 PM – 5:30 PM
Venue	Simcoe Street Theatre
Address	65 Simcoe St, Collingwood, Ontario
Admission	Free entry · Limited seats
Reservations	Eventbrite · Advance reservations encouraged

Media enquiries

Piyush Paul · Tech Lead & Sponsorships

paulpiyush@gmail.com

Website: <https://theramleelaproject.ca>

Reservations: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/ramleela-tickets-2003319336062>

The story & the people

Community-led. Family-centred.

Ram Leela is a theatrical retelling of the Ramayana. This project is a shared effort to keep a living cultural tradition close to children and families, while welcoming friends and neighbours to experience it together.

Story angles

- Families passing a cultural tradition to the next generation.
- Community volunteers bringing the Ramayana to a Collingwood stage.
- A free event connecting neighbours through storytelling.

Production team

Shrish Mishra — Production Lead & Actor (Ravana)

Priya Badola — Director (Narrator) & Costumes

Rahul Kathuria — Finance & Actor

Sushant Badola — Lead Actor (Shri Ram)

Piyush Paul — Tech Lead & Sponsorships

Heena Gaur — Lead Actor & Chief Happiness Officer

Apoorva Badola — Design & Lead Actor (Mata Sita)

Surbhi Lal — Operations & Actor

Neeti Seth — Costumes & Design

Arpit Dubey — Lead Actor (Veer Hanuman)

Mohit Sharma — Lead Actor (Shri Lakshman)

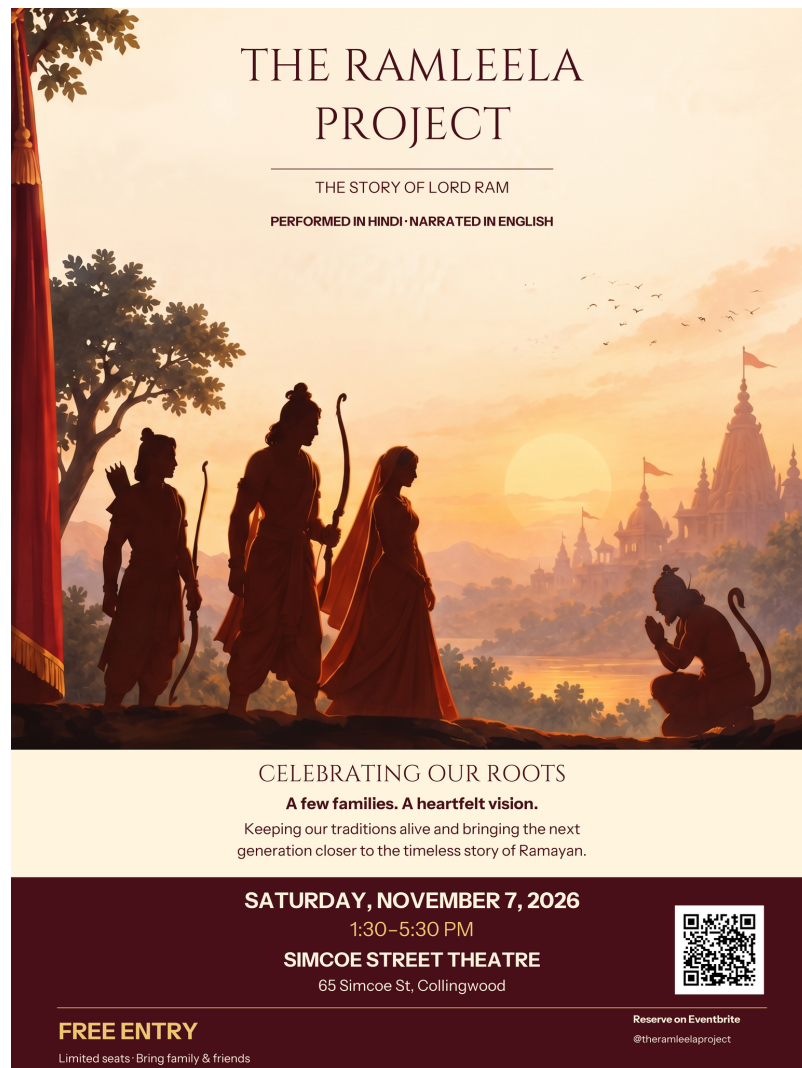

Vatsal Joshi — Operations & Sponsorship

Full biographies: <https://theramleelaproject.ca/people>

Explore the Ramayana: <https://theramleelaproject.ca/story>

Media assets

Event poster

The media archive includes this press kit, the event poster, team biographies and event facts. Artwork depicts the Ramayana; it is not a photograph of the cast.

Please credit The Ramleela Project when using the supplied event artwork. Contact Piyush Paul for interview or photography enquiries. No cast headshots are included.